For Lieut. Gov., EMIL BAENSCH
For Sec. of State, HENRY CASSON For State Treas., S. A. PETERSON.MILWAUKEE, July 26.—The first ballot today did the business. Haugen's strength stuck by him and he had 99 votes but W. H. Upham got 216. The votes of eight other candidates were merged in that cast for the Marshfield man.Last night it was said Schofield would combine with Haugen, but at midnight he announced that he would not fight his fellow lumberman.Judge Emil Baensch, of Manitowoc, was nominated for lieutenant governor on the first ballot.The first ballot was also enough to nominate Henry Casson, of Viroqua, for secretary of state.
Casson was Governor Rusk's private secretary and is a man of acknowledged sagacity.S. A. Peterson, of Pierce county, was named for treasurer on the first ballot.This has been a memorable gathering of Wisconsin Republicans. The convention yesterday was a most enthusiastic "one and without bitterness. The platform is an endorsement of the national republican platform. On the currency question it says: "The republican party is in favor of honest money.
We are unalterably opposed to any scheme that will give to this country a debased or a depreciated currency. We favor the use of silver as a currency to the extent only that it can be circulated on a parity with gold."The following candidates for governor were then nominated: James G.
Monahan of Darlington, Lucien B.
Caswell of Fort Atkinson, Horace A.
Taylor of Madison, Thomas M. Blackstock of Sheboygan, Major William H.
Upham of Marshfield, Major Edward S. Scofield, Nils P. Haugen of River Falls and Hans P. Warner of River Falls.The balloting followed. On the fourth formal ballot Upham for governor received 113½. Scofield received 62½ and Haugen 91. On the fifth formal ballot Upham made a gain of seventeen votes, receiving 130 votes, Scofield fell to 52½ votes, and Haugen to 88 votes, with no material change for the others. After the result of the fifth ballot was announced E. C. Eastman of Marinette, who seconded Scofield's nomination, moved that the convention adjourn until 11 o'clock to-day. The vote was—for adjournment, 188; against, 157.

ILLINOIS' REPUBLICANS MEET.

No Candidate for United States Senator from That District Nominated.SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 26.—Representatives Hall was crowded yesterday when Chairman Clark pounded repeatedly on the desk with a big mallet and asked the delegates to the state republican convention to stand while Rev. Isaac N. Adrian, of the Congregational church at Dundee, offered prayer.Chairman Clark then announced that the state central committee had selected Alderman James R. Mann of Chicago as temporary chairman of the convention, whom he now introduced and who was heartily cheered. Mr.
Mann, without preliminary statement, read his speech, which was applauded frequently and lustily.At the conclusion of Mr. Mann's speech ex-Lieut.-Gov. Ray moved that all resolutions go to the committee on resolutions without reading or debate.
Reading Clerk Van Cleave read a telegram from Senator Shelby M.
Cullom regretting his inability to be present.A series of resolutions relating to the care of the Lincoln monument by the state was then read. The motion to adopt these resolutions carried by a unanimous vote and the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.The crowd at the afternoon session of the convention was even greater than that of the morning. After some little delay Charles W. Raymond presented the report of the committee on permanent organization as follows:"Your committee on permanent organization reports: For permanent chairman of this convention, ex-Gov.
Joseph W. Fifer; for permanent secretary, J. R. B. Van Cleave; assistant secretaries, Charles Partridge, W. N.
Butler, Walter B. Phister, William Dunn, Judson Going, E. C. Hrszka,Isaac Hamilton; sergeant-at-arms, Don E. Frazier."Your committee recommends to the convention that the state central committee be increased by the addition of five members at large, and that the state central committee be empowered to make the selection."The report was adopted and ex-Gov. Fifer was escorted to the chair.
He made a long speech and was heartily cheered.The secretary read the portion of the report of the committee on credentials, that the state central committee be increased by the addition of five members at large and that the state central committee be empowered to make the selection, and after it had been amended and heatedly discussed it was laid on the table.Mr. Fuller of Boone then moved that the convention express its choice for a candidate for United States senator, and the discussion began. Finally a motion by Senator Chapman of Jersey county to table the motion to nominate a candidate for United States senator was adopted by a vote of 1,019 to 315. The committee on resolutions then reported. The platform declares for protection and denounces the Wilson bill, favors bimetalism and the use of gold and silver as money metals upon a parity of values with complete interconvertibility under such legislative provisions as shall make the purchasing or debt-paying power of any dollar coined or issued by the United States the absolute equivalent of that of any other dollar so coined or issued. Liberal pensions to soldiers and sailors of the Union are favored, the administration's course in Hawaii condemned, Gov. Altgeld's action in many cases denounced, and Senator Cullom's opposition to the senate tariff bill indorsed. The ticket was then nominated, as follows: State treasurer, Henry Wulff; superintendent of public instruction, S. M. Inglis; trustees for state university, S. A.
Bullard, Alexander McLean, Mrs. J.
M. Flower.C. R. Matson of Cook county moved that the chairman of the convention send greetings to the republican conventions now in session in Wisconsin and Iowa and the motion was carried unanimously. The convention then adjourned.

REPUBLICANS OF IOWA

Nominate a State Ticket at Des Moines Yesterday.DES MOINES, Iowa, July 26.—The republican state convention yesterday was one of the liveliest held for many years. The convention was held in Cavalry tabernacle, capable of holding 3,500 persons, and all the available space was occupied at every session.
The platform adopted indorses the national republican platform, declaring for protection and against the Wilson bill. On the silver question it says: "We adhere to the declaration of the national republican party in 1892 upon its monetary policy. We reaffirm our belief that the 'interests of the country, its farmers and workmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government, shall be as good as any other dollar.' We favor the largest possible use of silver as money that is consistent with the permanent maintenance of equal values of all dollars in circulation. We do not want monometallism, either of gold or silver, and we pledge ourselves to continue to work for bimetalism, to be brought about by all fit means within the power of the government."The following is the ticket nominated: Secretary of state, W. M. McFarland; auditor, C. G. McCarthy; judges supreme court, C. T. Granger, H. E.
Deemer; treasurer, John S. Herriott; attorney-general, Milton Remley; railroad commissioner, C. L. Davidson; clerk supreme court, Chris Jones; reporter, E. I. Sallinger.

Rich Is Sure of Another Term.

LANSING, Mich., July 26.—The sixteen county conventions held in the state yesterday insure the renomination of Gov. Rich. Of the delegates elected Rich has 207, Col Bliss 3, Judge Ramsdell 6, while Mayor Pingree did not get a single vote. The number necessary to a choice is 470. Rich now has 545, Pingree 137, Bliss 73, and Ramsdell 6. There are 190 delegates yet to be elected and Rich is sure of at least 125 of them.

South Carolina Farmers' Alliance.

AIKEN, S. C., July 26.—The State Farmers' alliance met in annual session yesterday and passed resolutions binding the members of the alliance not to vote for candidates to the legislature who do not stand squarely on the alliance platform.

Jerry Simpson Renominated.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., July 26.—The populists of this, the Seventh district, renominated Jerry Simpson for congress. The meeting was addressed by Gov. Lewelling.

Nebraska Corn in Danger.

OMAHA, Neb., July 26.—For more than two weeks no rain has fallen and there has been an excess of sunshine.
The stand that promised so well a month ago now promises a total failure unless rain comes before the end of the week. Many fields are already beyond salvation. The drought is unprecedented in its severity in this vicinity.

More Militia Leave Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Camp Hopkins, at Thirty-fifth street and Wentworth avenue, was broken up this morning, and the members of the Third brigade, which have been stationed there during the strike, left for their homes.JAPAN HAS CALLED HER MINISTER HOMEWASHINGTON SURPRISED BY AN UNEXPECTED STEP.San Francisco Reports a $10,000 Subscription by Americanized Japs and the Proposed Formation of an Army of 4,000 Men—No News Received in London at Noon.LONDON, July 26.—No news had been received at noon from Corea.WASHINGTON, July 26.—The Japanese minister to the United States has been called home.SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Japanese here raised ten thousand dollars for their government last night. They will equip an army of four thousand men here and send them to Japan if needed.SHANGHAI, July 26.—It is reported that the 12,000 Chinese troops which left Taku on July 20 for Korea, received by eight gunboats, have landed in Korea. The gunboats escorting the transports had instructions to fire upon the Japanese if the latter obstructed the landing of his army.The other troops which left Foo Chow for the Loo Choo islands are also said to have safely reached their destination.It is stated that if the report of the landing of the Chinese troops unopposed is correct, the prospects of a peaceful settlement of the disputes between China and Japan are improved, as the Chinese fleet of transports and gunboats could scarcely have escaped the vigilance of the Japanese war vessels if the latter had been preparing to oppose the landing of the Chinese force. This is said to show that Japan is now more amenable to the counsels of the treaty powers.

TO INVESTIGATE STRIKE.

Two Others Appointed to Act with Carroll D. Wright.WASHINGTON, July 26.—The President has appointed John D. Kernan of New York and Nicholas E. Worthington of Peoria, Ill., to act with Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright on the presidential commission to investigate the Chicago strike.Mr. Kernan is a well known lawyer in Utica, N. Y., and a son of Ex-United States Senator Kernan. He has been a particular and thorough student of labor questions, and has written several important contributions to literature on this subject. He was chosen because of his undoubted thorough understanding of the subject and his well-known sympathy with the laboring classes.Nicholas E. Worthington is now a judge of the Illinois circuit court. He represented the Peoria district in congress about eight years ago.

Wisconsin Forest Fires Dying Out.

SUPERIOR, Wis., July 26.—The destructive forest fires along the line of the Northern Pacific road have nearly all died out, everything in the path of the flames that would burn having been consumed. In other parts of the county fires are still spreading and will probably destroy more valuable timber if the long-looked-for rain does not fall to-night. Three small houses owned by settlers and one valuable grove of timber near Poplar station were burned yesterday.

Cholera Spreading in Galicia.

LONDON, July 26.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Daily News says cholera is rapidly spreading in Galicia, especially in the western district of Cracow and in the eastern districts near the Russian frontier. Traffic across the frontier has been prohibited.LIEGE, July 26.—Since Saturday eight new cases and four deaths from cholera have been reported. There has been one death from the disease at Herstal.

Methodists to Meet in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 26.—The committee appointed to definitely decide whether the next Methodist general conference will be held in Cleveland was in session here yesterday.
They had only one thing to decide, and that was whether Cleveland could furnish satisfactory guarantees that it would properly care for the great gathering. These were given and the conference is definitely booked for this city.

They Fail to Show Conspiracy.

WOODLAND, Cal., July 26.—Having made out what they considered a strong case against Worden and Hatch, the men charged with having actually ditched the train, the prosecution yesterday made an effort to show conspiracy on the part of Knox, Compton, and Mullen, members of the mediation committee.

Threatened by Strikers.

WHITING, Ind., July 26.—Two companies of militia have been withdrawn from Whiting, leaving only one to guard railroad property here. Sentinels were withdrawn from the switch yards last night, and one engine and a train crew were compelled by threats of strike sympathizers to leave work and go back to the roundhouse.

Massillon Strike Unsettled.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 26.—A settlement of the Massillon coal strike is apparently as far off as ever. The operators say they will pay 60 cents or nothing and if that figure was not accepted by the miners the mines would remain closed.BILL MAY YET PASS AS IT NOW STANDS.OUTLOOK BETTER FOR THE TARIFF MEASURE.Senate Democrats Send It Back to Conference, But Refuse To Instruct the Committee—Day's Proceedings of Senate and House—Much Anxiety Among the Democrats.WASHINGTON, July 26.—The senate will accede to the request of the house for another conference on the tariff bill, and its conferees will return to the meeting with those of the house untrammeled by any specific instructions whatever. This was the conclusion of the democratic senatorial caucus, which adjourned sine die a few minutes after 5 o'clock yesterday after a two days' sitting.While the caucus did not commit itself to any definite line of policy in so many words, the conferees feel, with their democratic colleagues, that they understand what a majority of them desire, and they believe this to be that they shall stand substantially for the senate bill. This is not the individual preference of many nor perhaps of a majority of the democratic senators, but it represents the opinion of most of them as expressed in the caucus as to the only practical course open to the democrats, who think that the present congress must pass a tariff bill of some kind, whether it be what they prefer or not.It became evident soon after the caucus convened that the resolution of Senator Jarvis to send the bill back to conference without instructions was the only course open to the caucus. The other propositions presented were those of Senator Vilas and his friends, one of which provided for instructions to the senate conferees to recede from the one-eighth of a cent differential on refined sugar without any other change in the sugar schedule, and the other to substitute for the present tariff schedule a duty of 45 per cent ad valorem without any differential, and that of the conservative to instruct the committee to stand by the senate amendments.Senators Smith, Blanchard and Caffery made speeches of some length. Senator Gorman devoted himself to a statement of the parliamentary status of the bill. Great earnestness was exhibited in the speeches of the New Jersey and Louisiana senators. Other senators as a rule spoke without any manifestation of feeling and the meeting was, upon the whole, far more pleasant than that of Tuesday.The vote on the resolution to send the bill to conference again was not unanimous, Senator Vilas and a few others opposing it and explicitly stip-ulating that their participation in the caucus should not be considered as binding them to support the report of the conference committee when again presented.During the proceedings the attitude of the populist senators, Allen and Kyle, who have generally voted with the democrats on the tariff bill, was alluded to and one of the senators present stated that he had been authorized by Senator Allen to say he thought the bounty on sugar should be continued for the present. The suggestion was not received with favor.Senators Hill, Murphy and Irby were again absent from the caucus. It is understood that an attempt will be made in the senate to-day to carry into effect the instructions of the caucus to have the bill sent back to conference. There may be some delay caused by more speechmaking, but the senate members of the conference committee are of the opinion that the conference will be reopened by tomorrow morning.A new phase was given to the discussion on coal by a proposition that the senate rate of 40 cents a ton should stand, with a provision for admitting coal free from such countries as make a reciprocity agreement to admit coal from the United States free. This brought out considerable comment favorable to the proposition.

Carlisle Confers with Crisp.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Secretary Carlisle appeared at the house of representatives at 4:30 yesterday afternoon and was with Speaker Crisp in the latter's private office for half an hour. It was said the tariff bill was not the subject of discussion.Speaker Crisp said last night that no program or plan of action on the tariff so far as the house was concerned had been or would be outlined until the senate had acted on the question of sending the bill back to conference. He hopes for a speedy adjournment, but he does not yet join in the general expression of members that a settlement and adjournment are close at hand.

OLNEY AND GENERAL MANAGERS.

Senator Allen Wants Correspondence Submitted to the Senate.WASHINGTON, July 26.—In the morning hour in the senate yesterday the conference report on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was agreed to.Mr. Allen presented a resolution directing the attorney-general to transmit to the senate full copies of all correspondence (telegraphic and otherwise) which passed between the department of justice and the railroads centering in Chicago from June 1 topresent time. He asked immediate consideration, but Mr. Platte objected and it went over.Mr. Vest, in the absence of Mr.
Zoarnee, chairman of the finance committee, who is ill, called up the conference report on the tariff bill.
Mr. Caffery took the floor and presented the speech he began Tuesday afternoon, but his remarks did not arouse much interest. He spoke principally as to the justice of the duty on sugar. When he had finished Mr. Daniel of Virginia took the floor.Mr. Quay (rep., Pa.) gave notice of three amendments he should offer to the pending motion before the senate; first to amend Mr. Vilas' motion, that the senate recede from the one-eighth differential in the sugar schedule so as to recede from the whole of the sugar schedule; the second, to add to Mr.
Gray's motion that the senate insist on all of its amendments, that it recede from the sugar schedule; and the third to add to Mr. Gray's motion another motion viz: That it recede from the differential in favor of the refiners.At 2:33 the senate went in executive session and an hour later adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In the house yesterday the communications which passed between the French government and the American embassy at Paris relative to the assassination of President Carnot were read.The conference report on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was laid before the house, and gave rise to considerable discussion, principally on the clause giving the commissioner of pensions $250,000 —a compromise between the $200,000 of the house and the $300,000 of the senate—for making special examinations. The report was agreed to. At 5:05 the house adjourned.

Favor Admission Bills.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The senate committee on territories has ordered favorable reports on the bills admitting New Mexico and Arizona to statehood. These bills have passed the house.

LYMAN TRUMBULL DECLINES.

Chicagoan Will Not Serve on the President's Strike Inquiry Commission.WASHINGTON, July 26.—Lyman Trumbull has declined to serve on the strike investigation committee. The President so told Congressman McLean to-day. Mr.
McLean urged the President to select the commission with the least possible delay, and he believes that Mr.
Cleveland will announce his choice within the next twenty-four hours.
It is reported unofficially that Daniel Magone, ex-collector of New York, will be the third member of the commission. Justice Mulkey or Lyman J. Gage will be the Illinois member. Congressman Springer made a speech before the labor committee of the house to-day in favor of his arbitration bill. Chairman McLean says a favorable report on the bill will be forthcoming and he will ask that the house take it up on Thursday for consideration.

K. OF L. IN THE CAMPAIGN.

Executive Board Completes Arrangements to Aid Nebraska Populists.OMAHA, July 26.—The general executive board of the Knights of Labor to-day completed arrangements for cavassing Nebraska in the interest of the populist party. State Workman D'Allemand was sent out to confer with the populist central committee and fix dates for twenty-four rallies during the fall campaign.
The general secretary was instructed to carefully prepare a list of all congressmen who have opposed the demands of the Knights of Labor, and extra efforts will be made to defeat them. Copies of this list were ordered sent to all local assemblies of the United States.

Big Blaze at St. Joseph.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 26.—Fire yesterday destroyed $100,000 worth of property in this city. It was started by a spark from a locomotive and before being extinguished burned the Bennett lumber yards, the Lincoln school building, twenty freight cars and about a dozen small houses.
The loss is mostly covered by insurance.

Barrett Says He Was Successful.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 26.—Grand Master Barrett of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association passed through here en route for Chicago after a proselyting tour through Kansas in the interest of the newly perfected switchmen's association. Mr. Barrett has been at Topeka, Leavenworth and other Kansas points agitating the scheme for a new order and said he had met with success everywhere.

Judge Nathan Goff Ill.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 26.—Judge Nathan Goff, of the United States court and ex-secretary of the navy, lies critically ill at his home in Clarksburg. A later dispatch says Gen.
Goff is now thought to be out of danger. He was attacked with with peritonitis on Monday evening and for a time his recovery was considered doubtful.

To Ratify Mexican-Chinese Treaty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 26.—Lee Win Yo, ex-consul-general for the Chinese government in this city, left on the steamer St. Paul for Mexico, where in a few weeks it is expected that the treaty between Mexico and China will be formally ratified by the representatives of the two governments.TROOPS ARE TAKEN

TION HAS BEEN REDUCED.State Militia Called Away From the Packing House District To Day, and the Companies at Pullman Likely To Go To-morrow—Everything Seems Quiet.CHICAGO, July 26.—Many of the state troops were withdrawn from the stock yard this morning. It is said that the troops will be withdrawn from Pullman tomorrow. The big force of city police at Pullman kept things in pretty good order yesterday, and there was no attempt made by the strikers to do harm.
The Allen Paper Car Wheel company opened its works again.
Eight men reported for duty and they were not escorted by police. They came quietly one by one and took their places at the machinery under the supervision of one or two bosses.

THREATS OF ANARCHY ARE MADE

Sensational Speech by Counsel for Debs—He Astounds His Hearers.CHICAGO, July 26.—The United States Circuit court furnished the arena for a most dramatic scene yesterday. It was at the conclusion of Judge Woods' decision holding that, under the information filed in the contempt proceedings against Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers, of the American Railway Union, the defendants must answer to the court for the crime of interfering with interstate commerce and with the United States mails. The opinion of the court, so clearly and emphatically holding the respondents and the American Railway Union responsible for the consequences of the boycott and strike, was like a bomb in the camp of the defendants and their counsel, W. W. Erwin made a speech which electrified the court and angered Judge Woods so that he trembled noticeably when Mr.
Erwin sat down and the court was called upon to answer what had just been said.Mr. Erwin's speech was perhaps the most remarkable ever heard in a court of justice, especially in that grave and dignified branch of the judiciary, the United States Circuit court, sitting as it was without a jury in a proceeding to uphold its own dignity. Mr. Erwin attacked the officers of the government and impugned the courts themselves, holding finally that the powers of the people back of the government, when the people failed to secure redress for their grievances, reverted back to the people.In short, the eloquent attorney's utterances foreshadowed anarchy itself as a means whereby the working classes could secure their rights when railroad officials, he claimed, had entered into a conspiracy to deprive the men of their rights, and the courts were supine or worse in enforcing them.Mr. Erwin then asked for a subpoena duces tecum to compel the railroads to bring in their resolutions, but the court said it had no power to make such an order, because the matter was irrelevant.Then Judge Woods referred to Mr.
Erwin's remarks. "It is perfectly clear," he said, "that your position goes back of the history of civilization, and brings us face to face with an order of things where the strong right arm is to rule."Mr. Milchrist said he had copies of all the acts of the railway managers which had been obtained for the grand jury and would be pleased to give the defense copies of them.
Judge Woods said one wrong did not justify another. The public was involved in the case and the public peace. A fragment of the public had no right to make war and the whole matter had no relevancy.John S. Miller asked that the case of Santa Fe receivers be heard at once, even if the government contempt case were continued, but the court decided to postpone the whole matter to Sept. 5.The court then postponed the whole hearing until Sept. 5. Bail for each of the defendants, Debs, Howard, Keliher and Rogers, was reduced to $7,000.
They immediately began operations to find the necessary bondsman.Late in the afternoon the prisoners gave bail and quitted their prison life. The bondsmen were William Skakel and William Fitzgerald, the same men who signed the $10,000 bonds under the first grand jury indictments.After the bonds had been signed President Debs left the building in company with his wife, sister and brother. One of his first acts was to call a meeting of the board of directors of the American Railway Union for this morning. One of the things to be decided will be the policy of the union for the next few weeks.

A NERVY MARSHAL DID GOOD WORK.

C. K. MILTIMORE'S WILD RIDE AFTER RUNAWAY RACERS.

Caught Sunrise Prince and Alta at the Track Yesterday Afternoon, While Mounted on a Broncho, Thereby Preventing a Good Many Things That Might Have Been.

Hats came off and a mighty cheer went up when Marshal C. K. Miltimore rode up in front of the grand stand at the race track yesterday afternoon.

There is no telling how much trouble and damage, not to speak of possible loss of life he had saved by his cool head and prompt action.

When the 2:16 trotters were at the quarter pole and going like the wind, an immense cloud of dust arose and floated off to the west. Out of the must there plunged a powerful sorrel horse with an overturned sulky banging about his heels. With long strides the flying animal began to shorten up the space between himself and the flying field.

"Runaway! boys, runaway!" came a clear voice from one of the sulkies and they all fell to one side to give the flying animal room. But that was not all. Floundering about in the cloud of dust at the quarter pole were two more horses. One was under the sulky in such a way that it could not get up and the driver was trying to straighten things up. Another driver at the same point succeeded in getting his horse on its feet and climbing into the sulky finished the heat. In the meantime the sorrel runaway and the field of trotters in front of him were flying toward the lower turn. A clear headed driver in the back row was "coaching" the other drivers.

"Go on Fullager!" he called to the driver ahead of the runaway. "Hold your place Bingham! You are all right where you are Castler" came his voice as he told them what positions to keep to avoid the runaway.

Another Wreck At The Turn.

So they went to the turn. As they were going around the runaway swerved into Maud Wright and a pneumatic tire wound about the wheel. Maud swerved to one side and struck Alta knocking her down and throwing the driver into the dust another horse passing over him. Luckily none of the other horses stepped on him and the soft pneumatic tires did not even bruise his flesh. At this moment there were two runners among the flying animals. One was the runaway and the other was Marshal Miltimore's broncho. With his whip cutting the air in front of the runaway the Marshal rode like a cowboy. This kept the runaway in a straight track and they finished without further accident but heeding not the starter's bell or the fact that the other horses had stopped the runaway plunged around the upper turn, with Marshal Miltimore and the broncho a little in the lead. Twice the marshal attempted to catch the runaway by the bridle, but failed. The third attempt was successful, and his wild career was stopped, and a cheer went up from the crowd.

Another One Ran Too.

But that was not all, for suddenly the crowd about Alta surged to one side, and the mare struggled to her feet and started to run. Marshal Miltimore spurred after her. The race was short but sharp. The plucky marshal soon had Alta by the bit and stopped her. Then he rode to the judge's stand to report. As he halted there was a wild cheer, and a raising of hats, to which the marshal responded modestly.

The horse that ran away was Sunrise Prince, driven by D. K. Castler of Cottonwood Falls, Kansas, and at the quarter pole he collided with Nina Medium in whose sulky sat R. Bean of Emporia, Kan., and Maggie Sherman, driven by F. B. Loomis, of Minneapolis. Alta, who was knocked down, at the back turn, was driven by George Spear of Minneapolis, while C. M. Clough of Rochester, Minnesota, sat behind Maud Wright. None of the drivers were seriously injured. It was Mr. Bean's second experience, his bridle giving away in the heat before, but he climbed from the seat to the mare's back and drove her home by the check rein. The judge's ruled Sunrise Prince out of the race for his part of the trouble, but held that it was not intentional. Alta, Maggie Sherman and Nina Medium all were given places per summary.

COULDN'T AWAKEN BELOIT.

Failure of a Methodist Evangelist At the Line City.

Rev. H. Cordner, a Methodist evangelist, has just closed a series of tent meetings in Beloit. He is an earnest speaker and has had good success elsewhere, but seemed to fail to awaken any great interest and said at the close of his last meeting that he had never had such an experience as at Beloit in not seeing conversions.

"What's the matter with Beloit?" he asked. "Most all the other places of the country have had their revivals, but nothing has moved you here. I tremble for you and believe that God will visit you in judgment if you do not accept the opportunities offered of turning to the Lord. His judgment has been visited upon the people of northern Wisconsin until they have suffered as never before in their lives, and now they hearken unto His word."

HE LEFT FOR GLADSTONE, MICH.

BIG BANKS NOT KNOWN HERE.

Superintendent Proudfoot Has a Few Figures At His Tongue's End.

Superintendent Proudfoot of the street railway, is somewhat of a statistician. He hasn't much regard for the matter that can't be reduced to figures and he doesn't like the man who quotes figures inaccurately. A newspaper item to the effect that Chicago had, in the First National bank, the third largest banking institution in the world set him talking.

"It's a mistake," he said, and then he read from a newspaper cutting: "To say nothing of the banks of England, France, Germany, Austria, Ireland and Scotland, there are joint-stock banks in the united kingdom and a large number of them which are enormously larger institutions than the First National bank of Chicago. There is, for instance, the National Provincial bank of England, which has its chief office in London. The total deposits of this bank, I saw by the Chicago Record not long ago, amount to the unprecedented sum of $235,000,000, while the total deposits of all the national or clearing-house banks in Chicago on May 4, 1894, amounted to but $139,805,816; this one London bank consequently is liable for nearly $100,000,000 more deposits than all the Chicago banks put together."

"There are banks in London such as 'Parr's and Alliance,' of which scarce a person in Chicago has ever heard, whose deposits reach $73,000,000. Another London bank—Stuckey's Banking company, almost totally unknown in the United States—has deposits of over $32,000,000; the Union Bank of London's deposits are over $89,000,000; the London and County Banking company's over $200,000,000, the London and Westminster over $160,000,000, the Bank of England over $385,000,000, the Liverpool Union bank over $300,000,000, the Lincoln & Lindsley Banking company, $140,000,000; the Manchester county bank, $77,000,000; there are ten banks in Scotland which have from $54,000,000 to $73,000,000 each in deposits and twenty colonial British banks which have from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 each in deposits, besides a large number of British banks in foreign countries which have from $15,000,000 to over $100,000,000 each in deposits. Among the colonial banks the Bank of Montreal stands with over $54,000,000 of deposits and with over $27,000,000 of paid-up capital. It is, consequently, safe to say that there are over 200 British and colonial banks, to say nothing of continental European banks, with much larger line of deposits than our largest western bank, which is the First National of Chicago, whose total liabilities are, say, $29,000,000."

Professor Tuttle Was a Man of Many Scholarly Attainments, and Won Golden Honors in the Realm of Modern Literature.

HE LATE PROF. Herbert Tuttle of Cornell university, who died recently in a general breakdown in the nature of paresis, at Binghamton, N. Y., was a widely known scholar and historian. He was born Nov. 29, 1846, at Bennington, Vt. He was graduated from the University of Vermont in 1869. He followed journalism as a profession from the time of his graduation until 1880, spending a considerable portion of that period as correspondent of the London Daily News and New York papers at Berlin. He became lecturer on international law at the University of Michigan in 1880, and on the same subject and political science at Cornell university in 1881—President White, then minister to Germany, having met him in Berlin, and become greatly impressed with his ability, securing his services for Cornell.

He became associate professor of history and theory of politics and of international law in 1883, professor of the history of political and municipal institutions and of international law in 1887, and of modern European his-

A writer in Harpers says that they are standard authorities on the subjects of which they treat, and were to have been continued. He published several other valuable works, and was a contributor to the leading periodicals. He was one of the ablest scholars and lecturers ever at Cornell. As a lecturer he at once commanded the attention of his hearers by his comprehensive treatment of the subject under consideration, and by his conciseness and clearness of statement. He was highly respected and admired by his colleagues and students. He was a member of the New York Delta Psi college fraternity at his alma mater, and also of Phi Beta Kappa.

Jews as Chessplayers.

In speaking of the great number of successful chessplayers of the Jewish race, and of the contest between the two Jews, Lasker and Steinitz, for the chess championship of the world, the Jewish Chronicle dwells upon certain traits which are prominent in the Jewish character. It maintains that the Jews are the best chessplayers because of their possession of mental qualities which have always been useful to the race, such, for example, as quickness of apprehension, tenacity of purpose, readiness in the application of resources, the power of estimating probabilities and an intuition which enables them to seize the opportune moment for developing action. These traits of mind have been marked in all of the Jews who have won fame and fortune in the playing of chess.

BABBITT MAY BE NOMINATED.

Democrats Start a Move to Put the Ex-Congressman in the Field.

The people of Racine county are well pleased with the nomination of Hon. H. A. Cooper for congress. He has made a good and faithful representative in congress when it is taken into consideration the odds he is working against. The opposition are talking various plans to work Mr. Cooper's defeat. It was suggested that Hamilton Utley, of this city, be the populist candidate and that the candidate of the democrats would endorse him. A committee saw Mr. Utley and he said that he would make the canvas if nominated. Other plans appear to have matured the past two days. It is now proposed to make Clinton Babbitt the populist candidate and prevail upon the democrats to endorse him and it looks at present as if the move would go through, although Mr. Utley has many friends and strong supporters in the populist ranks.—Racine Journal.

SOLDIERS GETTING READY FOR CAMP

Captain Glass Will Take a Good Company to the Tented Field.

Light Infantry boys are making special preparations for their trip to Camp Douglas this year. The indications are that there will be a very large attendance. In view of the condition of affairs in the county the past few months, when the National guard in a number of states were called out, feeling exists among leading citizens, as well as among officers and members of the Wisconsin National guard, that too much training cannot be had. With this view of the matter, a strong general feeling exists among citizens that employers of young men who are identified with the national guard should freely give the boys leave of absence from their regular business in order that they may be permitted, without annoyance or hindrance, to go into camp this year.

SCHEDULE OF RAILWAY INSURANCE

The System in Operation by the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul Company.

In the matter of earnings of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, being figured up for the year which ended June 30, a question came up as to whether the sum of $300,000, set apart for insurance was to be regarded as an annual charge or a special appropriation. It has just been decided that this sum is not an annual charge, but the result of a conclusion that the company could insure its own property better than it could be insured by regular insurance companies. The sum of $300,000 was withdrawn from the funds of the company by resolution, with the understanding that it should be kept good by appropriations from time to time to meet drafts against losses. During the past year the company's losses have been light.

SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS A WEEK

Is the Amount That Some Families Expect to Live on Under Grover.

One of the aldermen of the city informed a reporter today that he never saw so much suffering among the poor of the town as exists at present. He claims that men of brawn and muscle, willing to work, cannot get employment, and say that they and their children, numbering from three to seven, are obliged to live on seventy-five cents a week. He is anxious that school bonds be issued and improvements pushed in order that they may be given employment, for the city will have to support them anyhow.

Mighty is the Truth.

"And it will prevail!" Against unrighteous competition and spurious imitation, the genuine efficacy of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, always has and always will prevail. The public recognize it everywhere as the chief preventive of malaria, and a reliable specific for dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness, rheumatism, kidney trouble, biliousness and loss of appetite. Efforts made by irresponsible dealers to compete with it by indirect means have and will continue to fall upon the heads, and it may be added, the pockets of those making them. Through the length and breadth of the American continent it is the acknowledged household remedy, reliable and prompt. It relies upon facts, upon public experience, and upon the emphatic commendation of the medical fraternity.

FIRST DISTRICT MEN STOOD BY MONAHAN ### THEIR SCATTERING OF VOTES WAS PREARRANGED.

Idea Was To Keep Monahan Out of the Race Until the Leaders Got Into a Dead-LOCK—Judge Osborne Was in Charge of the Darlington Man's Campaign.

First district delegates followed the policy mapped out by J. G. Monahan's lieutenants in the Milwaukee convention. After casting their forty-one votes for him on the first ballot they scattered to other candidates. Last night Charles F. Osborne, of Darlington, who captained the friends of Monahan, conceded the nomination of Upham unless his opponents could unite on some one else, and he thought that that man would be no other than Mr. Monahan. It was Osborne's suggestion to scatter the Monahan vote after the first ballot and rally to it later with such other support as could be secured. Racine county was known to be hopelessly for Upham and Green for Haugen, but he thought the rest of the First district could be counted on for Monahan. In gathering in the vote of Caswell, Blackstock, other minor candidates and votes that had thus far been cast in a lukewarm way for others it was thought lay the only hope of defeating Maj. Upham.

Monahan had not expected the united support of the First district delegation from the time of the caucus Tuesday night.

The discussion at the meeting was heated and the session lasted from 9:30 until 11 o'clock.

The only real action taken was the appointment of a conference committee consisting of Cham Ingersoll of Rock county, Dr. Reynolds of Walworth county, J. C. Rice, Racine county, Henry Clark, Green county, J. A. Sauer, Kenosha county and Judge Wilson, Lafayette county. This committee looked the situation over and advised what course the delegation should take. The real object of the caucus was to hold the delegation in line if possible for Monahan for governor and in this the friends of that candidate were defeated.

A. C. Dodge, of Green county acted as the chairman of the caucus, and as soon as it was formally organized, Cham Ingersoll of Beloit, presented the claims of Monahan to the delegates. He paid a fine compliment to Mr. Monahan's abilities and pleaded that he be given the unanimous support of all the delegates from the First district. He said that the subject was open for discussion.

J. C. Rice, on behalf of Racine county, said that while the delegates from that county might be willing to accord a complimentary vote it could not be depended on to support Mr. Monahan after the first ballot. Substantially the same statement was made by Mr. Sauer in regard to the attitude of the Kenosha county delegation. He said that while the members would accord Mr. Monahan a cordial support he could not tell how long they would be willing to stand by him in the convention, and the inference taken by the other delegates from his remarks was that the Kenosha county delegation could not be depended upon after the first or second ballot of Mr. Monahan.

At the conclusion of the remarks of Mr. Sauer, the caucus assumed an informal character and the discussion was general. Another meeting was held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

HISTORICAL LIES.

There was probably no such man as Romulus. The first historian who mentions him lived at a distance of time so great as to throw extreme discredit on the story as told by him.

Alexander the Great did not weep for other worlds to conquer. There is reason to suspect that his army met with a serious reverse in India, a fact that induced him to retrace his steps.

The Janesville Carriage Works are building some pony wagons, which are the most unique vehicles ever exhibited. They are handsome, easy riders, and made to order for any sized pony. Life—I don't remember of hearin' no such tough yarn as you speak of. Tell you what really did happen down here, though, 'bout a year ago. A man shot a bear in the head, and just the minute the bear felt the ball he turned right round. He turned so quick that the ball hit the man and killed him after passing through the bear.—Philadelphia Post.

Frau Cosima Wagner, widow of the composer, is said to have so eccentric a disposition that she assembled her five dogs, recently, and sang to them.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age. It will astonish you how quick Johnson's Magic Oil will kill a pain. Sold at Smith's Pharmacy: 15 and 50 cent.

That oily and rough skin cured and the face and hands beautified by Johnson's Oriental soap: medicated and highly perfumed. Sold at Smith's Pharmacy.

Many Sure to the Occasion.
 Editor (looking over reporter's copy)—What's this! "Our esteemed fellow citizen, Col. Jones, is believed to be at death's door?" Didn't we print a sketch of Col. Jones' career some time back? Look it up, and bring it up to date in case he should die to-night.
 Reporter (after an inspection of the files)—Here it is, sir, but I'm afraid it won't do for an obituary. It was written when we were opposing Col. Jones for the legislature.—Life.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
 When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

Senatorial Convention.

A republican convention in and for the Seventeenth Senatorial district will be held at Brodhead, Wis., on Tuesday, the 4th day of September, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for state senator, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. ## THE PLATFORM.

Every republican in Wisconsin can stand solidly on the platform adopted in Milwaukee yesterday. This is the way it reads:

"We reaffirm the platform adopted at the national republican convention, and also the platform adopted by the state republican convention in 1892, and renew our pledges to the people as set forth therein. The present condition of the country, resulting from the threatened change in the industrial policy by the democratic party, the hundreds of factories and workshops closed down, the thousands of men out of employment, are the best witnesses which can be brought to testify to the wisdom of the policy of protection to home industries, which has always been sustained and fostered by the republican party.

"The republican party is a friend of both labor and capital—each is indispensable to the other. The party had its origin in opposition to the enslavement and degradation of labor and under its policy the workingman of the United States received a higher rate of wages and maintained degree of comfort and influence such as they had never previously enjoyed. It will employ whatever authority it possesses to promote all just demands of the wage-worker and support whatever practical measures may be devised for the amelioration of his condition. We recognize the right of laborers to organize, using all honorable measures, for the purpose of dignifying their condition and placing them on an equal footing with capital, to the end that both fully understand that they are friends and are equally necessary to the prosperity of the people.

"The republican party is in favor of honest money. We are unalterably opposed to any scheme that will give to this country a debased or depreciated currency. We favor the use of silver as a currency to the extent only that it can be circulated on a parity with gold.

The republican party is a party of religious liberty and absolute non-sectarianism, of entire separation of church and state, of free common schools, and of the utmost independence of individual thought, speech and action within the law."

That the platform was accepted without a word of debate by the convention is a remarkable proof of the unity that will make the greatest triumph Wisconsin republicans have ever enjoyed.

Mr. Cleveland wants free trade, without any ifs, and or buts, and he has the gall to say so, notwithstanding the awful condition of industrial and business affairs. He is a Bourbon of the Bourbons.

The places where socialism is reported to be a success are always a long ways off, and the nearer the impartial investigator gets to them the less apparent is the success.

The wise cuckoo gets himself taken care of before the rush that will follow the congressional elections. Congressman Breckinridge, of Arkansas, is a wise cuckoo; $17,500 snaps are scarce now.

The statements of democratic senators differ so radically from that made by Mr. Cleveland as to his position on the senate amendments to the tariff bill that they are equivalent to passing the lie.

Mr. Cleveland's attempt to play the little joker in the tariff game between the house and senate may win the game, but as yet it has only caused him to be accused of cheating.

A Richmond, (Va.) paper says it doesn't believe that Mr. Cleveland would accept a fourth nomination for president. Not unless it would be offered to him, brother.

The man who makes a practice of changing his political principles may be honest, but he cannot blame people for being a little distrustful of him.

It is curious that every time a professional office seeker is turned down he should feel specially cailed upon to lead a new party of reformers.

The assertion that "Debs will never surrender" sounds a little odd in view of the occupancy of a cell in the Cook county jail by Mr. Debs.

More trouble is caused in the world by bad men than by bad laws, the Coxeyites to the contrary notwithstanding.

The house says the senators ought to be all elected by the people; the senate says nothing.

Mr. Cleveland is again enjoying the echoes of the cuckoo songs, in and out of congress.

M. G. JEFFRIS' SPEECH PRAISED.

Janesville Man's Eloquence Thoroughly Enjoyed by the State Convention.

The appearance of M. G. Jeffris on the stage to place in nomination James G. Monahan reminded one of two years ago. How different things appeared then from yesterday. Two years ago the nomination was practically forced on Senator Spooner. Every republican at the West Side Turner hall then felt that Senator Spooner was making a great sacrifice. The senator had actually to be coaxed into accepting the nomination, and very small was the number of those who seriously desired it. In accepting the gubernatorial nomination Senator Spooner yielded to the entreaties and requests of such men as the late Secretary Rusk and other leaders. Yesterday twelve men stood in line making a determined fight for the nomination, each feeling that the man nominated would be the next governor of Wisconsin. Each side seemed determined, all were in dead earnest, yet a spirit of harmony pervaded the assemblage. Mr. Jeffris has done yeoman service in the party's behalf. His speech in the convention two years ago was remembered by many yesterday. It was a speech of warning against the democracy, but it was not heeded. Mr. Jeffris was also prominent in the roster suits and assisted greatly in exposing the whole rascality of that transaction to the people of Wisconsin. Mr. Jeffris is a partner of Ogden H. Fethers in the law business, and it must be remarked that this convention is the first from which Mr. Fethers, the silver-tongued orator of Janesville, has been absent for many years.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

FROM ACROSS THE WATER.

Big Bale of Crash Received in the Original Package By Reid.

There arrived this morning at Archie Reid's a bale of crash that came direct from the old country. It was enclosed in a heavy burlap, lined with waterproof paper and securely bound with linen ropes. The size of the shipment made it noticed, for each of the fifty rolls which composed it measured half a hundred yards. There was a total of 2,500 yards of one brand of fabric.

"What will you do with so much crash of one sort?" asked a Gazette reporter.

"That will be gone very soon. It is a brand we have carried for years and we close out a shipment like that much faster than you think."

NEW SIZES OFFERED IN SUMMER DEVILS.

THE JANESVILLE EVANGELISTS HAVE A REVISED PRICE LIST

If You Can't Afford To Have Your $35 Demon Removed You Are Invited To See the Grade of Live Stock Brought To Light for a Mere $15.

Two new styles of devils have been introduced by the tent evangelist, to meet the summer trade. At first they laid all sickness to one size of devil, but some diseases were so much worse than others that the explanation didn't hold water. They changed their doctrine and patients can now be relieved of a little devil for $15, a medium sized devil for $25 and a big devil for $35. The Gazette man's $7000 devil is left as a horrible example of how high the price may go if the evangelists are encouraged in their race for wealth. Last night The Gazette got a good deal of attention from the two apostles of humility, meekness and double-entry bookkeeping. "All in the audience who will join in pulling down that debauched and dissolute paper stand up!" yelled Evangelist Welch. The audience smiled encouragingly and the evangelist continued that in two months the Gazette would be dead and buried. Where the people will go for quotations on summer-weight devils after the Gazette's market report was suppressed he did not explain.

ED. DUNBAR, who has been absent from Janesville for twenty years, materialized on the streets this morning, shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Dunbar was employed in the dry goods store of McKey Brothers, and afterwards was a clerk in the clothing store of Irwin & Adler. He lost his personal effects in the Hyatt House fire, he leaving the city soon after that hotel was destroyed.

LOCAL REPUBLICANS ARE HAPPY Everything the President Does or Fails to Do Makes Them Smile.

THE Wisconsin republican convention, the Cleveland-Wilson letter, and the speeches of Senators Gorman and Hill, form the topics of general discussion and conversation around town nowadays. It is generally conceded that the republicans will present a winning ticket this fall, and that the president has not helped democracy very much by writing his free raw material letter.

Colts Make Good Time For a Special Purse—Lady Nutwood Beats G. W. Howe After Dropping the First Heat—Results in the 2:30 Class Pacing.

Four good races had their names inscribed at the Janesville track this afternoon. The exciting events of yesterday had drawn a larger crowd than any class of the meet and the morning trains brought goodly delegations from every direction. In the pools last night it was all "choice" and no favorites were named. While the 2:30 pacing class and the colt race that was postponed yesterday were both known to be made up of good timber, the free for all pacing and the 2:20 trotting classes were of the most interest.

In the former were Doctor J. (2:11); Two Strike, (2:11); Free Coinage, (2:11); Rucker, (2:11); Telegram, (2:12); Kissells' Dallas, (2:10); Charley Ford, (2:12); and Maggie R. (2:14). Bettors were in the clined to favor Dr. J. who broke the state record for half mile tracks at Waukesha last week, but all the others had their backers as well. It was said that if Dr. J. was "right" he would turn the Janesville track three times in better time than 2:12 but Two Strike, Kissells' Dallas and Rucker had better records and Free Coinage the same mark as the Doctor. Telegram, Charley Ford and Maggie R. were not far behind. Dr. J. had paced here before so he was not totally unknown to Janesville horsemen.

Next in interest came the 2:20 class in which were Algy (2:19), Virginius (2:19), Grace Simmons (2:20), Mary (2:20), Myrtle N. (2:20), B. B. P. (2:25), Prince (2:22), Maggie Wright (2:22), Nominee (2:25) and Fairhaven (2:22) beside Garnish, Volusia and Lucky Baldwin, all of whom have fast records.

The 2:30 class included Katie S. Carrie W., Ithariel, J. F. R. Burley F., Jurist, Tom Corwin, Dr. Manker, Novice and Dick White. In the colt race were Prince N., Valley Queen, Lady Nutwood, Cyrus, G. W. Howe, and Way Bird.

The first race was the special for the three-year-old trotters. Prince N. was the favorite but G. W. Howe, H. D. McKinney's colt won the first heat handily and owned it all the way. The second heat G. W. Howe lost to Lady Nutwood by a break, but was a good second.

Burley F. got the first heat in the 2:30 pace, in the fast time of 2:18, beating Tom Corwin by a neck. Drivers were changed in the second heat and Carrie W. won by half a length.

Special for three-year-olds and under.

HANDSOME PRESENT FOR NELLIE.

First Ward Girl Delighted By Her Father's Thoughtfulness.

There was joy in a First ward home this morning.

"Nellie hasn't been looking well this summer," the mother had said a day or two ago. "I wish we could send her out into the country for the summer. The way your business stands though, I don't suppose you could get away with us."

Today the father solved the problem of how his daughter could get fresh air without leaving home. He bought a pretty cream colored Shetland, and the Janesville Carriage Co. furnished him a pony carriage to fit. The cart was a marvel of lightness and style, although only a fair sample of what the company is constantly turning out.

"I don't suppose Nellie will stay in the house more than just long enough to eat and sleep, said the fond mother as she smiled at her daughter's delight. That pony cart will save us a good many doctor bills and give our girl brown cheeks and bright eyes."

MAY THE WIFE BEAT HER LOVING HUBBY?

LEWIS HOWARD SAYS HE SUFFERS MUCH.

He Seeks a Divorce as a Respite From the Showers of Pokers and Stove Wood That Now Drive Him From His Family Altar—What Are Wifely Privileges?

Evansville is now to the front with a sensational divorce suit. Most of the villagers have been subpoenaed as witnesses before Judge Bennett. The case is that of Lewis Howard against Ella Howard, and quite an array of legal talent is engaged on the case. Hon. T. C. Richmond of Madison, R. M. Richmond of Evansville, J. P. Towne of Edgerton, and George G. Sutherland of this city, took part in the case this morning.

Action is brought by the husband for divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, and the case is being hotly contested by the wife. Howard and Miss Ella Everson were married in 1885, and according to the complaint their home never was a paradise.

"She frequently gave me h—ll," testified the plaintiff.

He then detailed the cruel and inhuman treatment dealt out to him by his wife. She thought nothing of letting a poker or a stick of stove wood fly at him, and it was not an unfrequent occurrence to have a chair hurled at his head. At times when he caught hold of his wife to compel her to cease hostilities, she would kick him most inhumanly.

The testimony promises to disclose some interesting facts in relation to the Howard home. The defendant says she will bring forward testimony to prove all the charges unfounded, claiming that she has been a most dutiful wife. The case is continued until next Tuesday.

WARFARE BALLOONS WILL BE IMPORTANT.

FOUR NATIONS ANXIOUS FOR SUPREMACY.

France, Germany, England and the United States Perfecting Aerial Engines of War—Recent Advances in the Science of War.

THE HAVE AN EFFECTIVE balloon fully equipped and ready to take the field in case of war at a moment's notice is now regarded by all the great European powers as a matter of vital importance. Even in the United States is the question being discussed with a great deal of interest. Everything tends to show that if there is one branch of modern warfare, or, rather, perhaps, strategy, which is likely to be watched with keen interest during the next war it will be that of military ballooning. It is generally conceded that France has made the greatest strides toward perfection in this line, though the world at large has not been permitted to know the exact results of its latest experiments. There is a great deal of secrecy about the establishment of Mendon, where the Government Parc d'Aerostation is situated. France has been and is spending a great deal of money in perfecting an absolutely faultless dirigible balloon, one that can be moved in any direction at the will of the aeronaut irrespective of the direction of the wind. The French experts claim that their war balloon, the "Gen. Meunier," attained a speed of twenty-eight miles an hour and could be guided with utmost ease to any given point. However, since no outsiders were allowed to witness the wonderful performance, it might be a trifle exaggerated.

The German emperor does not propose to let his warlike neighbor monopolize this feature of army equipment. He has just presented to the German Society for Promotion of Aerial Navigation for the advancement of this science the sum of 50,000 marks. This is to be applied for the construction and equipment of a giant balloon. This balloon will be as high as a four-story house. It will be fifty-six feet in diameter and will contain not less than 3,500 cubic meters of gas. It will be made of Egyptian cotton stuff and will be coated with vulcanized gum, a substance which is considered superior to varnish.

A very interesting feature of this monster balloon will be the provision of a special valve of a new construction which will keep the gas pure for a longer time and thus sustain the balloon for a longer period. It is proposed to make not less than fifty journeys within a year and to ascend as high as possible. An altitude of 33,000 feet is thought to be obtainable by the use of artificial respiration. More than $2,500 will be expended in purchasing scientific apparatus for this balloon, which is intended more for taking observations than for the purpose of war.

Aside from this the German army has lately put in the field as efficient a balloon corps as that of France.

side. One of these was seized by a soldier, who was carried across the river in the twinkling of an eye. As soon as he had landed he fastened the end of a line securely, after which the balloon was hauled forward and back, and in less than no time transferred a battalion from one side to another.

In building the war balloon "Gen. Myer" for the signal corps of the United States army the first real step was taken by the military officials of this country to advance with the great war powers of Europe to this line of military work. It is modeled after both the French and English military balloons and in mechanical details embodies the best features of each. It resembles the English in the similarity of material from which the envelope is made. The system of inflation is also like that of the English, the hydrogen being stored under pressure within steel cylinders. In the plan of its suspension gear it is after the French models.

The envelope of the "Gen. Myer" is spherical in shape, with a capacity of 13,000 cubic feet, corresponding with the ordinary balloon used abroad for captive ascensions, and having a lifting power sufficient to carry two men with the necessary signal instruments. The envelope is formed of goldbeaters' skin, which is especially adapted to this purpose, as it is impervious to the hydrogen gas and is very light. The membranes from which this fabric, goldbeaters' skin, is formed are taken from the entrails of the bullock, each animal furnishing one. When stretched they are from eighteen to twenty-four inches long and ten to sixteen inches wide. After taking the membranes from the slaughtered bullock they are at first scraped free from fat and soft parts and salted till needed for use. After taking them from the salt they are first culled, washed and soaked in fresh water till the salt is taken out. Then a day or two before using they are placed in a vessel containing soft water, in which has been dissolved some fish glue, which adds to their adhering qualities when making the fabric of the envelope.

EDITH SESSIONS TUPPER.
One of the Womanly Bright Lights of American Journalism.

No newspaper woman of the time is more widely and favorably known than Mrs. Edith Sessions Tupper. Mrs. Tupper has achieved eminence by conscientious fidelity to high ideals, joined to industry and courage in meeting and overcoming obstacles. She is a native of Panama, Chautauque county, New York. Her father is the Hon. Walter L. Sessions, for many years closely identified with republican politics. Her first professional work was done for the Buffalo Express. After her marriage to Horace E. Tupper, a Canadian Englishman and well-known railroad man, she moved to Chicago, where she filled special assignments, doing interviews, etc., for the Herald. While there she

FIGURES TO PROVE IT.
There are 13,000 varieties of postage stamps. Ninety-five per cent of vacant public lands are in the arid regions. The catacombs of Rome contain the remains of about 6,000,000 people. There are over sixty languages and dialects spoken by subjects of the czar. There are eight edible and twenty poisonous varieties of mushrooms in the United States. After being abolished for twenty-five years, the death penalty has been resumed in Switzerland. The water that pours over the falls of Niagara is wearing the rocks away at the rate of five yards in four years. A train which runs at the rate of eighty-five miles requires a mile in which to stop, when going at full speed. It costs Great Britain $20,000 to scrape the barnacles off the bottom of one of its big men-o-war and repaint it, and this has to be done twice a year in the case of nearly every vessel. Taking the earth as the center of the universe and the polar star as the limit of our vision, the visible universe embraces an aerial space with a diameter of 420,000,000,000 miles and a circumference of 1,329,742,000,000 miles. France has the greatest debt in the world. It amounts to about 39,611,000,000 francs, equal to about $6,120,000,000. The public debt of the United States amounts to about one-fifth that of France—$585,039,310—not including about $2,000,000 of matured debt, and the greenbacks, treasury notes, etc. The population of the globe is thus divided in point of religion: Christians, Protestants, 110,000,000; Romish church, 191,000,000; Greek Orthodox church, 96,000,000; Jews, 4,900,000; Mohammedans, 172,000,000; heathens or pagans, 274,000,000; Asiatic Buddhists, 648,000,000; grand total, 1,455,900,000. The total number of deaths in the United States in 1892 was about 900,000; the number of persons cremated that year, 503. As crematories have been in existence in the United States since 1881, these statistics indicate that the movement favoring the burning of the dead is not making much progress. MINOR MISCELLANY. A movement has been inaugurated in Boston to abolish the padrones and to assist resident Italians to employment and citizenship. The fastest short hand writer in the world is a young Dublin gentleman, Mr. George Bunbury. He can write 250 words in a minute. The champion mean man has turned up in Masterton, Victoria. He presented a plated penny at the Salvation army barracks and received 2s 3d in change. In California peach stones are used for fuel, as they burn as well as the best coal and throw out more heat in proportion to their weight. Apricot stones are used for the same purpose, but are not considered as good. Captain Moore of the Mary Gibbs, is home from a voyage to Africa with a cargo of rum and missionaries from Boston. He called at thirteen ports to unload rum which was received with wild enthusiasm. At the thirteenth port the missionaries went ashore uninvited. That there is a Providence that guards the babies was shown the other day in Brooklyn, when a runaway horse after upsetting half a dozen vehicles in which there were grown people, raised himself lightly and leaped over a deserted coach in which an infant was sleeping. A German printer named Schneiderei reached his birthplace in Rathenow, Prussia, recently, after walking all the way from Calcutta, a trip which took him more than two years. He left Melbourne, Australia in May, 1892, with his savings, 23,000 marks, his wife and two children. The vessel on which he sailed was struck by lightning and burned, and his wife, children and fortune were lost. Schneiderei and a few others escaped in a small boat, and at last he reached his home. Vinegar will not split rocks. So Hannibal could not thus have made his way through the Alps. Nor will it dissolve pearls. So that the story of Cleopatra drinking pearls melted in vinegar must have been a fiction.

THE SUEZ CANAL TRAFFIC.
Three thousand three hundred and forty-one ships, of 7,659,000 tons, passed through the Suez canal in 1893, yielding $68,000,000 in dues. According to the report of the company to be issued, passengers numbered 186,495, and yielded 1,894,000f., while sundry accessories yielded 384,000f., making a total of 71,000,000f. Three thousand and eighty-two of the ships, or 92 1/2 per cent, passed through by night. The average duration of transit was 20 hours 44 minutes; of actual motion, 16 hours 53 minutes. There were nine petroleum vessels. As to the nationality of the vessels, the English were 2,405, German 272, French 190, Dutch 178, Austro-Hungarian 71, Italian 67, Norwegian 50, Ottoman 34, Spanish 29, Russian 24, Portuguese 10, Egyptian 5, American 3, Belgian 1, Brazilian 1, Japanese 1.

Catarrh AND GOLD IN THE HEAD relieved instantly by one application of Birney's Catarrh Powder No secret here. No sneezing or blowing. FREE SAMPLE Mailed to any address.

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes: "Catarrh—It is not easy enough for your powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good states speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering."
M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes: "Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held in front of my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve."

Small But Effective.
Was the little Monitor that met the Merrimack at Hampton Roads. So too are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, effective in conquering the enemy—disease. When you take a pill it's an important point to have them small—provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You find what you want in these little liver pills of Dr. Pierce. They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"—grumpy, thick-headed and take a gloomy view of life, is these Pellets to clear up your system and start your liver into healthful action. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved, and cured. Put up in sealed glass vials, and always fresh and reliable.

JAMES WILLIAM CRAIG, Esq., of Georgetown, Ky., says: "My wife thinks your little 'Pellets' are the greatest pills out."

GLUTTONY AS AN ART.

Those Who Understand Eating Keep Young Longest.

It has been said a number of times lately that women will never prove their equality with men until they take as much thought on the subject of what they eat as men do. Therefore it behooves them to set about that task immediately. They cannot be expected to eat as much, not being, generally speaking, as large, but they must cultivate a nice appreciation of flavors and know a gastronomically artistic menu, when they see it, as a picture connoisseur knows a fine painting. If the caterers to women's clubs were consulted, they might be able to state, with authority, that women already know the difference between good and bad food. If they put up with inferior viands, as they often do, it is rather because they are not so intelligent as men and dislike to "kick," as the phrase goes.

CREPON GOWN.

Brillat-Savarin is quoted as saying: "It has been proved by a series of rigorously exact observations that by a succulent, delicate and choice regimen the external appearances of age are kept away for a long time. It gives more brilliancy to the eye, more freshness to the skin, more support to the muscles. Those who understand eating are four years younger than those who are ignorant of that science."

No doubt food has much to do with beauty, but it is doubtful if exceeding niceness of palate is any aid to the retaining of youthfulness. A cultivated palate is usually taken to mean a fondness for curious seasonings and unique combinations that do not appeal to the multitude. It is desirable to be able to eat epicurean cookery when it is set before one, but it would be hardly convenient for either men or women to be able to eat nothing else. Confinement to high living has not been found to have a particularly beautifying effect on those who have tried it.

The sketch given is of a gown of layard striped crepon in blue and white. The blouse corsage is gathered to a yoke of gauze and insertion, and straps of insertion trim the skirt as well as the bodice. The elbow sleeves consist of two puffs and have epaulets of blue moire. The back of the skirt is arranged to fall in coquilles.

HANDLE WITH CARE.

The Difference Between Gently Touching and Roughly Banging.

A rough touch is one of the most common of unpleasant personal traits. There are many persons who cannot set down a bit of china without running the risk of cracking it, and who cannot touch a flower without bruising the petals. A person of this sort habitually pushes her face into a bouquet in order to smell of it, dog's ears books and rubs her hands over the face of a picture. She strikes an animal with the idea of caressing it, she hurts the person with whom she shakes hands, and she leaves her mark on everything she touches. This habit is exceedingly displeasing in a man. In a woman it is intolerable, since she is naturally more delicate and has more to do with fragile things. When a woman of this sort borrows sheet music she folds and soils it. She takes the freshness out of every ruffle, ribbon or bit of velvet she lays her finger on. She handles a baby or a sick person as she would a log of wood, and she steps as if she would put her heels into the floor. This is entirely habit and can be conquered like any other superficial peculiarity. Parents ought to suppress the propensity in their children as soon as it appears, but if they do not the child herself can control it when she grows older, if she will take the trouble. Her own vanity ought to be sufficient to make her avoid being a source of continual nervous irritation to those about her. There is nothing restful in the society of a person who is always banging furniture, slamming doors and making the house jar with her walk. It is said to be the fashion for women to be feminine just now, and it is to be hoped that we will all be feminine to the extent of touching persons, animals and things gently.

An illustration is given of a gown having two skirts, the lower of which is of pearly colored taffeta. The second skirt is of pearl gray taffeta striped with pearly color and sprinkled with bouquets. The plain corsage has a double ripple basque and is trimmed with a wide, pointed collar of white lace. The balloon elbow sleeves are finished with a fall of lace and a pearly colored knot. A white lace hat is worn trimmed with pearly ribbon and a spray of flowers.

A LONG CHANCE.

Willing to Have Him as a Guest, But There Were Obstacles.

One afternoon, as I rode along up the Clover fork of the Cumberland river, I came to a very comfortable-looking house of three or four rooms. A woman was hanging out clothes in the yard and I hailed her, says the Detroit Free Press writer.

"I'm going up the river," said I, "and I'll be back this way about 6 o'clock. Can I stay here all night?" "I reckon you might, mebbe," she replied, coming to the fence, "but I ain't so shore."

"Why not? I wouldn't trouble you, but I'm in a hurry and I want to get as far on my way back to-night as I can," said I, persuasively. "Well," she hesitated, "we hain't but the front room for strangers, an' that's kinder bespoken fer to-night."

"Why can't I divide with the other fellow?" I ventured. "Tain't that. They ain't nobody goin' ter sleep thar."

"Then let me have it," I urged. The woman's hospitable soul was troubled.

"Lookee here, mister," she said, confidentially, as she stretched her neck across the fence so I could catch her lowered tones, "I'll leave it to you whether you'll come or not. You see, it's Bill Digginses nigh to court my darter Sary Angeline, and they allus sets in that room. I'm hopin' William an' Sary Angeline'll hitch purty soon, fer William is the likeliest young man in these parts, an' I don't want to throw nothin' in their way. If you take that room, William don't git it, an' ef William don't git it, he'll be goin' off in a huff, an' tear the linin' outen all my hopes."

"But why can't I take it after Mr. Diggins has finished his call and gone home?"

She shook her head doubtfully.

"You might," she said anxiously, "but you see, mister, Bill is powerful continnerin' in his way, an' me an' Sary Angeline humors him, an' he don't ginerly git started till about 2 or 3 o'clock in the mornin', so ef you was waitin' fer him, you'd have to set out in the entry and sleep in a cheer, unless you'd rather take the haymow. Them's the circumstances, mister," she concluded; "it's a case of hitchin' or hospitality, an' you kin take yer choice."

Of course, "them bein'" the circumstances, I smiled my very best smile and told her I'd render all the assistance in my power toward the realization of her hopes.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which flattered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and heave gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all this is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 105. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry S. Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

"To see if her skirt hung right" replied Johnnie. A grieved look came over the fair young face as she turned to the next young hopeful and asked: "Where did Adam and Eve go when they were turned out of the garden for eating the apple, Teddie?" "To the nearest drugstore after Jamaica ginger." Tears came, but she turned to Jimmie. "Now, Jimmie, why was Lot's wife turned into a pillar of salt?" "'Cause she was too fresh." Strikers Vote to Stay Out.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 26.—The local lodge of the American Railway Union held a meeting last evening, at which between 500 and 600 members were present. By an almost unanimous vote it was decided to continue the strike, at least until the Southern Pacific managers should signify a willingness to take the men back in a body.

Costly Toga.

People do not realize that it costs a great deal of money for an officer of the army or navy to comply with the regulations as to dress. He must have the same amount of civilian clothes as an ordinary citizen to wear when he is off duty. Then he must have a fatigue uniform, which costs him never less than $45, and usually more, a dress uniform, which costs at least $100, and a special full dress, worth from $125 to $150, and an overcoat, costing from $50 to $60. He is required to have a number of caps and hats with plumes and that sort of thing, which cost $5 to $50; his epaulets cost from $25 to $50, his swords and belts from $50 to $65, and various other little fixings that are quite expensive. At the beginning of his service it usually costs an officer of the army or navy from $600 to $750 to get his outfit of clothing, and whenever a change is made in the regulations concerning uniforms, of course the expense is renewed.

The Apple Cure for Dyspepsia.

Not only are apples of well-recognized hygienic value, but there is an apple cure for dyspepsia, just as there is a milk cure. Some physicians that practice the apple cure require their patients to eat from one to three apples for breakfast, about as many for luncheon, and permit them to take a dinner of moderate amount and variety. This diet is sometimes kept up for many weeks together and with marked success.

TATE IS IN JAPAN.

Kentucky's Defaulting Treasurer Is Recognized by Ensign Rodman.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 26.—"Honest Dick" Tate, the defaulting state treasurer of Kentucky, has at last been located.

For years his family had believed him dead and since his disappearance his wife has died.

Ensign Hugh Rodman of the United States navy, who has been on a visit in Kentucky, said while in Japan several months ago with his ship he met Tate and dined with him. Rodman has known Tate all his life. He was averse to betraying him. Tate is badly broken in health and can not live long. His bondsmen have paid the last installment on his defalcation and an effort will be made to induce him to return and tell who were his partners in crime.

Gompers Preparing a Statement.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has prepared a lengthy paper giving his reason for not ordering a strike of the unions not affiliated with the federation in sympathy with the Pullman strikers. Up to the present he has declined to give his reasons when interviewed.

Very Little Left for Creditors.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 26.—The auditor appointed to distribute the funds realized from the sale by the sheriff of the property and effects of the Godfrey & Clark Paper Manufacturing company, has filed his report. The claims against the company were $273,945, and the sum realized $2,000. The general creditors will receive 2 mills on the dollar. The company had creditors and officers in New York, Chicago and other cities.
